Dear Assoc.Prof. Akkar and Assoc.Prof. Glavatovic,

On behalf of the Assistant Secretary General for Public Diplomacy I am pleased to inform you that, in the framework of the Science for Peace Programme, NATO has awarded a supplementary grant for the project NATO SFP-983054 "SfP-Sismic Maps Harmonization" which is being carried out in collaboration with:

Prof. Mihail Garevski, Univ. "St. Cyril & Methodius", Skopje, the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia*
Dr. Shyqyri Aliaj, Seismological Institute, Tirana, Albania
Dr. Vlado Kuk, University of Zagreb, Zagreb, Croatia
Dr. Amer Zoranic, Ministry of Civil Affairs, Sarajevo, Bosnia Herzegovina
Dr. Svetlana Kovacevic, Seismological Survey of Serbia, Belgrade, Serbia

This grant, in the amount of EUR 150,000.00 (ONE HUNDRED FIFTY THOUSAND EUROS), is made in the name of the NATO country Project Director on the understanding that the institutional affiliation is the Middle East Technical University. The overall estimated amount for the project is EUR 638,000.00, of which EUR 250,000.00 have now been awarded to the project. The breakdown of these awards is as follows:

3 Sep 2007 EUR 150,000.00 20 Jun 2007 EUR 100,000.00

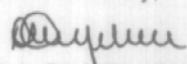

This grant is made under reference SFPP 983054 subject to the NATO financial regulations and the "Funding Provisions and Terms and Conditions for the Administration of Science for Peace Projects" specified in the initial grant.

This original document should be circulated to the Partner country Co-Director who is requested to initial this letter and sign the acceptance statement. The head of the institution with which each partner is affiliated or his designee is also requested to sign this acceptance statement. The grant will come into effect upon receipt by the Science for Peace Programme Office of the original document completed by all parties. Until such time, faxed copies of this document completed by individual Project Co-Directors will be provisionally accepted.

The NATO country Project Director is requested to inform other project participants of this supplementary grant.

The terms and conditions of this grant are identical to those of the original grant/contract, as modified only by the above paragraphs.

Yours sincerely,

Chris De Wispelaere
